🌟 Two Flames, One Purpose

Every soul who has descended into incarnation has been given the gift of fire—the Threefold Flame, anchored within the secret chamber of the heart. This triune flame—Blue, Gold, and Pink—contains the divine pattern of the soul's evolution:

- Blue Flame: Divine Will and Power
- Gold Flame: Divine Wisdom and Illumination
- Pink Flame: Divine Love and Creative Adoration

The Pink Flame, tender and magnetic, is the attractive force of creation itself. It is the power that draws form from formlessness, calling matter to align with divine love. Archangel Chamuel and Charity are the guardians of this flame, and their retreat—the Temple of the Crystal-Pink Flame—radiates this divine current of creative love into the etheric body of Earth.

"The flame of love from the Temple of the Crystal-Pink Flame promotes generosity of heart, givingness and forgivingness."

— Pearls of Wisdom, Vol. 58 No. 13

Yet love is not complete in adoration alone. In divine law, every inflow must have its outflow. When the Pink Flame reaches its full mastery within the heart, it naturally calls for service—for the active expression of love through word and deed.

This is where the Ruby Flame descends.

The Ruby Flame: Love in Action, Anchored in the Eighth Ray

The Ruby Flame belongs to the Eighth Ray, the ray of integration and divine service. It takes everything the soul has gained through the first seven rays—the learning, the initiations, the inner transformations—and calls all of it into practical, embodied action.

Archangel Chamuel and Charity also serve this ray, for the Ruby Flame is the fulfillment of the Pink Flame. It is love made strong, love with backbone, love willing to sacrifice for the greater good.

"We are Chamuel and Charity and we come draped in ruby fire! See that you are not singed by the ruby fire, but internalize it at will."

— Pearls of Wisdom, Vol. 38 No. 35

The Ruby Flame also carries a judgment quality—not a judgment of condemnation, but of purification. Whatever is unworthy of divine love must fall away when the Ruby Flame is invoked. This is why the Ruby Ray is often called the purging ray—it burns through the self-serving, the impure, the unaligned.

"The ruby intensity of our ray can be a laser beam to dissolve all that is unreal."

— Pearls of Wisdom, Vol. 35 No. 52

The Twin Flame Parallel

This inner union of the Pink and Ruby Flames mirrors the outer work of Twin Flames. Each flame is a spiritual current, and true divine counterparts embody and magnify these flames for each other.

- One may hold the nurturing aspect (Pink).
- One may hold the protecting, serving aspect (Ruby).

But ultimately, every soul is called to master both flames within themselves—to receive love fully, and then to pour that love back into life through conscious service.

The Call to Action for the Disciple

To invoke both flames is to enter the Priesthood of Divine Love. It is to say:

"Let my heart become a chalice where divine love flows freely—soft when love must comfort, fierce when love must act."

"The pink flame of Love does protect and seal the blue lightning, and the blue lightning must come again to protect and seal the Ruby Ray intensity that is for a purging as no other ray can purge."

— Pearls of Wisdom, Vol. 38 No. 35

In your daily practice, you can consciously invoke:

-  The Pink Flame to soften and open the heart.
 -  The Ruby Flame to consecrate your hands, your words, your daily work as divine service.
