☀ Invocations to The Angelic Host.....6

When we invoke Higher Beings, we are entering into relationship with living, luminous Intelligences whose service spans universes, planets, and the smallest details of our daily lives, not reaching out to abstractions.

When we learn more about who they are, we strengthen our trust, deepen our devotion, and open the channels through which Their gifts can flow. These Beings move in currents of Light far beyond the limitations of the physical world, yet Their Presence becomes near and tangible the moment we call.

✦ Who They Are

The Ascended Masters are those who once walked the Earth as we do now. They gained mastery over their thoughts, feelings, and outer conditions, transcended all human limitation, and entered the freedom of the Ascension. When we call Saint Germain, Jesus, Nada, we are calling Elder Brothers and Sisters who understand the journey intimately and stand ready to assist us with the same Love that carried Them to victory.

Above them stand the Cosmic Beings, Lords of vast realms whose authority spans far beyond a single world. Sanat Kumara radiates a Love so great that it sustained the evolution of Earth for ages. The Great Divine Director holds the blueprint of our Divine Plan. Mighty Victory pours a momentum of triumph that lifts our efforts far beyond what human strength alone could reach. When we invoke Them, we are entering the radiance of Powers who govern cosmic cycles and universal currents of Sacred Fire.

The Elohim are the Builders of Form, the architects of creation who hold the Divine Patterns for planets, civilizations, and the very elements that compose our physical world. Each Elohim embodies one of the Seven Rays—Power, Wisdom, Love, Purity, Truth, Peace, and Freedom. When we call Them, we invite Their precision, Their mastery, and Their ability to crystallize Divine patterns into our lives.

The Angelic Host move and can be felt as waves of Sacred Fire. They carry comfort, purification, protection, illumination, and the most tender Love. Angels respond in an instant to devotion. They come wherever we call Them. Their very movement is praise, and Their purpose is to surround us with the qualities of the Divine. When we invoke Angelic Legions, we are not alone—we are upheld by radiant currents of Light that strengthen, heal, and protect us.

🔥 Their Electronic Radiation

These Beings radiate a Light that is a living, intelligent substance. Their electronic radiation is a self-luminous, concentrated fire that dissolves discord the moment it touches it. This is why we feel lighter when we invoke Them, why burdens lift, why clarity returns, why energies shift even before outer circumstances change.

In I AM Fundamentals II, Lesson One, the Sacred Fire is described as the power that “dissolves and consumes human creation.” When we call the Violet Flame, the Blue Flame, or any Ray-action of the Masters, we are calling currents of Light that move through our emotional, mental, and physical bodies with precision and purpose. This radiation is not bound by time or distance. It answers instantly because it moves in the octaves of Light where thought and action are one.

When we invoke Saint Germain’s Violet Flame, it begins clearing patterns.

When we call Mighty Victory, a golden radiance of triumph enters our aura.

When we summon the Love of Jesus, peace flows through the heart.

When we invite the Elohim of Purity, a crystalline white brilliance fills the mind.

When we ask the Angels to stand guard, we feel their wings of Light surrounding us.

Their electronic substance meets our call, and a fusion occurs: our intention rises, Their power descends, and transformation takes place in the very fabric of our energy. In this sacred exchange, we remember who we are—beings of Light with the authority to call and the capacity to receive.

☀️ Invoking the Angelic Host

The Angelic Host move as waves of Sacred Fire. They carry comfort, purification, protection, illumination, and the most tender Love. Angels respond in an instant to devotion. They come wherever we call Them. Their very movement is praise, and Their purpose is to surround us with the qualities of the Divine. When we invoke Angelic Legions, we are not alone—we are upheld by radiant currents of Light that strengthen, heal, and protect us.

The Angelic Host are among the most immediate and tender of the helpers available to us. They move in waves of Sacred Fire, responding with speed, clarity, and Love. Their Presence is gentle yet powerful; Their service is constant; Their joy is to magnify the Light wherever a sincere call is made. When we invoke the Angels, we invite currents of comfort, purity, illumination, and protection into our lives. These currents do not simply soothe our feelings—they reshape the atmosphere around us, quiet discord, and establish harmony.

✦ Angels as Carriers of Sacred Fire

The Angels are pure radiations of Divine Energy. Each Angel is a living flame, carrying a precise quality of God’s Love into whatever situation is touched by Their Light. They come to us as:

- Comfort, dissolving sorrow or heaviness.
- Purification, removing shadows from the emotional and mental bodies.
- Illumination, offering clarity where confusion once stood.
- Protection, surrounding us with a wall of Light that keeps discord out and peace within.

Their activity is swift because Their nature is obedience to the Divine Will, and Their joy is to answer any call made in sincerity. They do not hesitate, question, or delay. They respond immediately, carrying the Sacred Fire where we direct it. When we invoke Them, we feel a change in the emotional atmosphere—a softness, a peace, a strengthening presence that lifts us above the agitation of the outer world.

🔥 Their Instantaneous Response

Beloved God Tabor assures us of something wondrous:

“The moment you think of Us, your picture flashes to Us... and We answer instantly.”

This means that invocation begins even before a word is spoken. Thought itself is a call. When our attention turns toward the Angelic Host, They see us, feel us, and surround us. The speed of Their response is beyond anything in our physical world. They travel along currents of Light where no delay exists, no distance, no obstruction. Their nearness is not measured in miles but in attention. The moment we turn toward Them, They are already there.

This is why we feel uplifted when we think of an Angelic Being. The very act of remembering Them opens a wave of radiance that flows back into our heart. And when we speak Their Name through invocation, the radiance pours through with even greater force, filling our aura with the qualities They embody.

Angelic Flame Actions

Each Legion of the Angelic Host serves a specific Flame action. When we invoke Them, we invite mighty streams of Sacred Fire to move through our world with purpose and precision.

Legions of the Violet Flame

These Angels carry the purifying fire of mercy, forgiveness, and transmutation. When They are called, They lift the weight of old patterns, dissolve discord, and restore harmony with gentleness and grace. Their presence brings a feeling of relief, lightness, and renewal.

Legions of the Blue-Flame Protection

These Legions surround us with the Blue Flame of Divine Power. They form an invincible circle of protection, cutting us free from fear, interference, and any discordant influence. When we call Them, we feel stronger, more centered, and shielded with a mantle of spiritual authority.

Legions of Cosmic Victory

These Angels carry the golden-radiance of triumph. They strengthen our resolve, quicken our progress, and help manifest success in Divine Order. When They move through our affairs, obstacles dissolve and new paths open. Their presence is uplifting, confident, and filled with joy.

When we regularly invoke the Angelic Host, we begin to feel Their companionship as something real and steady. They become familiar presences in our day—silent helpers, protectors, and guides. Their Light blends with our own, and we move through life with greater peace, greater clarity, and greater strength.
